1. BUYING FOR RESALE: Buyers must have an Idaho seller's or E911 fee permit number unless they are wholesalers who make no retail sales or are out-of-state retailers with no Idaho business presence (e.g. physical location, representatives, employees, etc.). An Idaho seller's or E911 fee permit number has nine digits. For example, 000123456. If the number contains an inappropriate number, such as a federal Employer Identification Number, the certificate isn't valid. To verify a seller's permit number, contact the Tax Commission or visit our website at tax.idaho.gov.

2. PRODUCER EXEMPTIONS: Businesses that are primarily devoted to producing products for resale can buy goods that are directly and primarily used in the production process without paying tax. Businesses offering the right to fish, hunt birds, or other wildlife as a taxable activity can buy goods that are directly and primarily used in the hunting or fishing activity without paying tax. However, these businesses must pay sales tax on any of the following:

Seller: You can stamp or print a production exemption statement on the front of your invoice. If customers fill in their exemption claim on a stamped or imprinted statement each time you make an exempt sale to them, you don't have to keep a form ST-101 on file for them. Contact the Tax Commission to get the required language for the exemption statement.
